

LANTERN POEM

The lantern poem is a Japanese form of poetry. The first line consists of a 1-syllable noun (person, place or thing). That noun is the subject of the poem. The following lines describe the subject. Line 2 has two syllables. Line 3 has three syllables. Line 4 has four syllables. Line 5 goes back to 1 syllable. All lines are centered on the page so that the finished poem resembles the shape of a Japanese lantern.
